GLOBAL BANKING & FINANCIAL SERVICES EXPERTS

Financial Regulation and Compliance Global Rules, Codes and Practise

Financial institutions worldwide grapple daily with finding and maintaining their organisation's unique balance between commercial competitiveness and its compliance to financial regulation. Keeping up to date with the changing rules as needed for implementation is needed to ensure critical and cost-effective decision-making.

This 'rules and regs' course uniquely covers the current and future trends of global financial regulatory requirements facing the ever expanding range of regulated entities including banks, funds managers, asset management, pension funds, insurers, exchanges and markets.

Course Objectives

Participants will benefit from a robust global perspective and gain in-depth knowledge, understanding and analysis of

- business practices and behaviours;
- legislation, conventions
- FCA and PRA rule books, guides and codes;
- take overs, insider dealing, the UK Bribery Act and money laundering;
- the regulation of exchanges and markets; and
- future trends in UK and EU financial regulation.

Who should attend?

- Regulation and Compliance managers and staff
- Legal and accounting industry professionals
- Anyone seeking employment in financial regulation and compliance sector
- CISI Candidates to the Diploma in Investment Compliance

Knowledge Prerequisites
