

ACCREDITED TRAINING PROVIDER

Introduction to Securities & Investment (International)

This introductory global qualification has been designed specifically with new entrants to the global investment industry in mind. This qualification covers the basics of the Economic Environment with an introduction to financial services with a particular focus on Investment.

Course Objectives

The purpose of this two day course is to equip delegates with the necessary knowledge and exam techniques to prepare them for the exam for this qualification.

Who should attend?

This qualification is appropriate for new entrants to financial services with an interest in global investments.

Our unique 2 day classroom led training course includes:

- Content rich PowerPoint slides
- Up-to-date and relevant case studies
- A sample practice paper
- Smaller class sizes which focus more on teacher/student interactions
- An expert trainer with practical industry experience

Progressive study pathways:

- This qualification can be taken as a stand-alone unit or taken as part of Investment Operations Certificate (IOC).
- To achieve the CISI Investment Operations Certificate (IOC) combine any three Technical, Regulatory or Introductory units (please see the final page for options)

Course Director:

Dennis Cox is a leading financial services risk management and internal audit specialist serving banks, regulators and financial institutions globally, with a carrier encompassing HSBC, Prudential Portfolio Managers, Ernst & Young, BDO Binder Hamlyn and Arthur Young.

Dennis specialises his risk advisory services and lectures on the balance of risk management and the modernisation of internal audit and the auditing of compliance risk areas. He also addresses risk management as a driver for organisational change in banking, and risk-based bank internal audit. He is a specialist in risk and audit for bank departments and functions including credit, treasury, operations and accountancy issues related to the Basel Accord and the dynamics of changing regulation and business banking competitiveness
